

Loretta Ng
Partner
PwC Sustainability

Loretta is a Sustainability Partner at PwC Hong Kong. As a thought leader and senior expert in sustainability, she leads responsible investments, M&A and ESG practices in financial services in the Asia Pacific region. Ms. Ng's comprehensively cover various asset classes for mainland, Hong Kong and international asset management institutions. She also provides a full range of services including sustainability & climate governance structure design, full investment process integration and disclosure of climate risk, and climate risk disclosure.